EVOLVE: NOS Students' Newsletter

WELCOME to Issue I Year IV!

Q: What is 'Evolve'?

EVOLVE is an NOS newsletter, run by NOS students with the school's help. It's a space where NOS students can express their thoughts and feelings and share their take on what's happening at school and beyond with our school community and the rest of the world.

Q: Who can join, and how?

The EVOLVE team consists of Grade (9-12) students. You can apply to join by e-mailing: editor.newsletter@nos.edu.jo. You can also ask any of our current team members (listed on the last page) for advice. Although the EVOLVE team consists of Grade (9-12) students, any student from any stage who is interested in writing is welcome to contribute an opinion piece.

Q: Where can I find the previous issues?

Our school administration sends Evolve to NOS students, parents and staff by email. So, you can look for it in your NOS school e-mail inbox. We also post the issues on our Facebook page (Evolve: NOS Student's Newsletter).

A message from EVOLVE Advisor, Dina Ra'ad-Yagham, Head of Communication & Outreach

Dear EVOLVE Readers, we are so happy to connect with you again. Last year EVOLVE was in "hiatus"; no issues were released, mostly due to over-packed schedules by the newsletter's student staff, the majority of whom were seniors with too much on their plate. As a student newsletter, EVOLVE is meant to be an outlet for our students, not a burden or a source of pressure. So, while we encourage and support them to publish, we do not push them beyond what their time allows. To make up for lost time, we will be featuring some stories from last year in the "Throwback" section of each issue. We bid our Seniors 2018 farewell and thank them all for bringing student newsletters back to NOS after years of dormancy, especially EVOLVE's founder and 1st Editor-in-Chief Majd Muna.

This year, we are pleased to have new blood on the team, with many enthusiastic Grade 9 and 10 students, accompanied by some seasoned Seniors, and we are delighted to have a new, very committed Editor-in-Chief, Maryam Al-Safi, who never gave up on EVOLVE coming out again. All the thanks to each and every one of them for putting this issue together with minimal supervision. This "Comeback Issue" touches on just some of the things that are happening at our school. With much of the school news now being featured on the official NOS Facebook page, EVOLVE is "evolving" more into a platform where students can voice their opinions, share their thoughts and reflect on the world around them as they see it, inside school as well as outside it.

Sports, Music, Drama, Art and other activities are an important part of our School life, but our team was unable to feature them this issue. They will be featured in coming issues. Stay tuned and happy reading!

EVOLVE: NOS Students' Newsletter

A Salute to the Man behind EVOLVE

Majd Muna dreamed up EVOLVE back in 2015, and with the help of his schoolmates and teachers, he turned it into a reality. This is the first year that EVOLVE goes on without Majd as its Editor-in-Chief. In honor of his work and as a tribute to Majd for starting EVOLVE, we asked him to send us a message from the University of California, Berkeley, where he is now studying Industrial Engineering and Operations Research, to tell us what made him want to do this. Below is a message from Majd.

Entering sophomore year at NOS, I wanted to showcase my school community's achievements and share that pride with the outside world. NOS had achieved unprecedented athletics wins, acceptances from top-ranked universities, globally high-rankers in A-Level exams. Gaining a wider awareness by people beyond the local community would precisely do them justice.

That's when I resolved to establish EVOLVE, a student-based newsletter, to promote and recognize students' potential in diverse fields of talents and reveal the true human tapestry in the student body. What started as a team of five developed into a team of twenty-five, what started as a struggle to design one digital issue blossomed into eight successful issues, what started as a way to impact the school...impacted me.

As a byproduct, I learned to lead by example, communicate effectively with different school stakeholders, encourage and give opportunities for others to excel, deliver, and experience the true value of teamwork.

Most importantly, EVOLVE engraved a permanent home for pioneers, for those creating the news and for those bringing the news to light, and I could not be more proud.

I wish EVOLVE the best of luck as I write this from the University of California, Berkeley where I pursue Industrial Engineering & Operations Research, hopefully with minors in Conflict Studies or Data Science.

If there's one thing to mention, it is that the National Orthodox School lingers in the heart forever, never departing.

La Semaine de la Francophonie à NOS

-Alexander Abuzeid

Comme chaque année, notre école, participe à la Semaine de la Francophonie et avec l'aide de la coordinatrice Mme Aziza Hamdi, et Mme Suha Nassar, nous avons eu le plaisir d'accueillir l'ambassadeur Belge, Monsieur Henrik Van de Velde, le 26 Mars 2018. Personnellement, j'étais aux anges parce que non seulement, j'étais le présentateur de cet événement mais aussi car L'ambassadeur allait venir chez nous, et ceci, va nous exciter certainement, et aussi nous encourager à perfectionner notre français.

Le thème du spectacle était «Les Schtroumpfs». Beaucoup d'élèves de notre école ainsi que ceux de nos jardin d'enfant, Wahbeh Tamari, lui ont présenté un programme varié, dont une pièce théâtrale un medeli de chansons européennes et des peintures de «Schtroumpfs ».

C'était un spectacle très réussi et l'ambassadeur était très ravi de nous, des cadeaux ont été distribués aux participants.

Our Sophomore Trip to France!

-Tara Abboud

Each year since 1996, our French coordinator Ms. Aziza Hamdi schedules a trip to France for the summer after Sophomore year for our students. On July 2, 2017, a group of 15 NOS Sophomores, with two of our teachers (Ms. Aziza Hamdi and teacher Osama Abbas), headed to the French Riviera, visiting Nice, Monaco and Cannes, and then Paris. The trip lasted two weeks.

During the first week spent in Nice, we took French classes, each according to his/her level at a school called Azurlingua. Then we went out to see the city at noon each day.

The second week was spent in Paris where we got to visit the Eiffel Tower, the River Seine, the Louvre Museum, Disney Land Paris, the Champs-Elysees, Arc de Triomphe, Notre-Dame de Paris, Sacre-Coeur Paris and Palace Versailles.

Many thanks go to dear Ms. Aziza, teacher Osama and our school administration for giving us such wonderful opportunities to see the world together.

It was a great experience to see the famous Mona Lisa and all the great places people always talk about when mentioning France. Travelling is always a way to learn and grow.

In March 2018, NOS became an IB World School, accredited to teach the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme (IBDP). Our school will begin offering the IBDP choice for Grades 11 and 12 students starting next school year, 2019-2020. But NOS has already opened classes for the IBDP Foundation Year program, this year, for Grades 9 and 10 students. Raman Othman explains a bit about the Programme and shares her experience so far.

IBDP at NOS: So What Exactly Is the IB?

-Raman Othman

“The IB Diploma Programme (DP) was established to provide a challenging and comprehensive education that would enable students to understand and manage the complexities of our world and provide them with skills and attitudes for taking responsible action for the future. The IB focuses attention on the values and outcomes of internationally minded learning described in the IB learner profile. IB learners strive to become inquirers, knowledgeable, thinkers, communicators, principled, open-minded, caring, risk-takers, balanced and reflective. These attributes represent a broad range of human capacities and responsibilities that go beyond intellectual development and academic success. Learning communities become more inclusive as they identify and remove barriers to learning and participation. Commitment to access and inclusion represents the IB learner profile in action.” –IB.org

IB Foundation Years students at NOS (Grades 9 and 10) are currently working on enhancing and obtaining their Approaches to Learning (ATL) skills alongside the IB learner profile attributes in hopes of becoming well-rounded students, well-equipped for their upcoming IBDP years (Grades 11 and 12).

IB Orientation

On Saturday, September 1, 2018, the first IB orientation was held in our beloved NOS. Parents, students and teachers (of both Grades 9 and 10) came together to meet all their new teachers, as well as to take a look into their new classrooms, in addition to a Q&A session held at the end to answer any questions. The session was organized by the IBDP Coordinator Ms Alice Haddad with assistance and cooperation from IB teachers and the Grade (9-12) Stage Administration.

A Look into Our IB Classrooms!

In both Grades 9 and 10, there are resource libraries, filled with a wide and diverse selection of books and references for each subject. Placed on the walls are student projects and creative outputs of self-expression. Our boards are always decorated to correspond with the unit or project that we are working on; for instance, one of our Grade 10 English units was about gender roles; thus, as part of our 2nd month assessment, we were assigned to decorate our designated English board as we wished. As part of our IB curriculum it is vital to participate in many teamwork activities. Therefore, Grade 9 students put work in their Chemistry class in order to discuss the topic at hand. In Grade 10, alongside the board decoration, students were assigned to write and present a speech about the topic of gender roles for their English class. In order to grasp the concept of formal public speaking and making speeches, Grade 10 students had the opportunity to stand on a podium as they presented.

The 1st NOS-IB Event “From My Heart to Yours”

-Noura AlNasser

The IBDP students held a fundraising event in observance of International World Heart Day. The one-day event, on September 29th, entailed selling a variety of healthy treats and packaged vegetables to students of Grades (6-12). We raised 326 JDs. The money was donated to Gift of Life Amman (GOLA), a non-profit organization which facilitates heart surgeries for underprivileged children. “It was amazing! We worked so hard to make this work, and we definitely nailed it!” said 9th Grader Hala Hamdan. After the bake sale, the following members from GOLA; Dr. Khaled Salaymeh, Dr. Issa Abu Dayyeh, Mr. Gharib Meneh, and our very own nutrition teacher, Ms. Lamis Hayasat spoke to Grade 11 Biology students and other NOS students and parents about chronic heart disease and conditions. The IBDP students prepared a video describing chronic heart disease and discussed ways to prevent it, with a heartwarming request that said “From My Heart to Yours”. With that said, the IBDP students urge all of you to #saveaheart.

NOS Achievements

CIS REaccreditation

-Raman Othman

CIS Reaccreditation

Earlier this September, it was pretty well known that the CIS was planning a visit to our school's campus; thus, naturally much buzz was going around. Even though there was a number of CIS visits to our school, still, there was curiosity circling their visit and its purpose this time.

Who Is the CIS and Why Did They Visit?

CIS stands for "The Council of International Schools". It is a membership based global non-profit organization that is mainly committed to high-quality international education. The CIS accreditation is a tool used around the world, to monitor, assess, and evaluate the standards and quality of the education a student receives at school. It is a quality assurance and evaluation process to provide an opportunity to improve and verify the quality of the education offered.

NOS succeeded in getting the CIS accreditation for the first time back in 2014; it was one of the first 4 schools in Jordan to do so.

The CIS accreditation lasts a five-year span, and as our school's 5th year approached, a team visit was scheduled by the CIS, in order to ensure everything was in check and up to standards. The visit lasted for a week, from the 15th to the 20th of September in specific.

The team visit included members of the CIS touring our school and its kindergarten, Wahbeh Tamari, in addition to meetings with Board Members of our parent organization, the Orthodox Educational Society (OES) and with the NOS leadership team, as well as multiple students, teachers and staff members.

Eco School Accreditation

-Maryam Al-Safi

In addition to the CIS re-accreditation, last year our school was awarded the Gold Level in the Healthy Schools Accreditation, based on its success in meeting the guidelines set by the Royal Health Awareness Society for a healthy, hygienic, safe school environment. But there was one more important accreditation our school set out to gain, based on its sense of environmental responsibility: Eco Schools.

Since last year our school has been working on getting the Eco Schools accreditation. At the end of last year, the Eco Schools Review Committee visited NOS. They toured the school and listened to a presentation by some students from the Environment Club. On Thursday, November 15, 2018, our school officially received the Eco schools Green Flag.... Now we all have to work together to protect our school and our world environment!

What is Eco Schools?

An environmental management education program with 5100-member schools in 67 countries worldwide. It is designed for the implementation of sustainable development culture in schools by encouraging students to take a more active role in the environmental administration of their schools and houses through working in their classes, the school and the community. The program is administered worldwide by the Foundation for Environmental Education (FEE)

الكشف المبكر... حياتك

هكذا كان عنوان حملة سرطان الثدي لشهر تشرين الأول/أكتوبر ٢٠١٨، الذي بنى من خلاله طلبة المدرسة الوطنية الأوثونكسية عملاً كان ممثلاً بالحياة. بدايةً كانت الآراء كثيرة، ولكنّ الفكرة والهدف واحد؛ ممّا جعلنا نحن كطلبة نجتمع على الإبداع. كان أكبر اهتمامات الطلبة جمع التبرعات من خلال بيع بعض المنتوجات لمعلميهم وزملائهم وأهاليهم؛ للمساهمة حتى وإن كان جزءاً بسيطاً من علاج مرضى السرطان تحديداً سرطان الثدي.

بدأنا نحضّر مقطعاً توعوياً بمشاركة مجموعة من الطلاب والطالبات، لنشر الوعي بضرورة الفحص المبكر لسرطان الثدي سواء للنساء أو للرجال، وقد تلقينا دعماً كبيراً من قبل جميع المعلمين والمعلمات وزملائنا الأعزاء، فكانت مديرة المدرسة مي القسوس الداعم الرئيسي لهذه الحملة فهي من كانت تباشر بالسؤال عن عملنا في هذا المشروع الممتلىء بالأمل والأصرار. وبعد الإنتهاء من المقطع المصوّر، تمّ عرضه في المسرح أمام مجموعة من الطلبة والمعلمات والمعلمين وتم نشره على صفحة المدرسة على (الفيسبوك). ولم تقتصر أفكارنا على عمل مقطع مصور لنشر التوعية فقط بل قمنا بإحضار سعادة العين القاضي تغريد حكمت، الناجية من مرض السرطان وتحديداً سرطان الثدي، وكانت قصة سعادتها ملهمة للحاضرين جميعهم ممّا أعطانا دافعاً للصمود والإصرار على الحياة، فهي بكلّ فخر مثال للمرأة العربية الناجحة والمكافحة.

واستضيفنا أيضاً الأستاذة علياء خير من مؤسسة الحسين للسرطان التي ساهمت في نشر الوعي بضرورة الكشف المبكر لسرطان الثدي، وكان أغلب الحاضرين لهذه المبادرة معلمات شعرنا من أسئلتهن بخوفهن الكبير من هذا المرض ولكن وراء هذا الخوف الكبير ثقة انبثقت لحضور هذه المحاضرة التوعوية، وكان هنالك مجموعة من الطلاب والطالبات الذين كانوا مثلاً للمستمع المميّز والمحاور اللبّق. فكان لتلك المحاضرتين وقع كبير في نفوس الحاضرين الذين أدركوا أهمية الكشف المبكر عن سرطان الثدي. شكرًا من القلب إلى القلب لكلّ من ساهم وشارك بنجاح هذه الأعمال المفعمّة بالحياة. شعرت من خلال هذا العمل أن بداخلي طاقة إيجابية عالية، وموهبة تفتح الطريق أمامي للالتحاق في العمل الإنساني والتطوعي.

Tribute

The Dead Sea Flashfloods tragedy that happened on October 25, 2018 was a shocking, heartbreaking calamity that shook the entire Jordanian family. At NOS, students wore black and expressed their sadness and sympathy with the families of the victims of this awful incident during morning line-up. Our school representatives joined other schools in a sympathy and solidarity visit to the devastated school that lost many children on a trip that doomed day. One of our students, Kira Yaghnam (Grade 9), wrote this piece, expressing her thoughts and feelings, trying to imagine what it was like for those brave children. May their precious souls rest in eternal peace.

“Dead in the Dead Sea” A Tribute to the Dead Sea Angels...

- Kira Yaghnam

“HOLD ON TO THE EDGE!” They kept yelling.

“YALLA, YOU CAN DO IT!”

I tried, I really did... I tried with all my might, but it was no use. I was failing to keep my head above the watery grave that wished to swallow us all.

My tiny feet wrestled with the slippery mud, the evil water was beating my face so hard... my breaths were agonizingly painful and awfully short... my small and slim body was being swept away by the unforgiving, rocky flood that came by surprise, I was too far away from the edge... it was just impossible, I wasn't ready for it... none of us were, I wasn't strong enough nor fast enough... none of us were.

It all happened in just a few seconds... I found myself down in the depths of the stinging waters of the Dead Sea, heavy waves crashing over me. I knew that this was the end for me, still... I battled against my fate... thinking about my Mama and Baba, waiting for me to come home. I shouldn't have fought... I shouldn't have fought against my fate.

I just made it worse; I was gulping down terrifying amounts of cold, salty, slimy water... trying to breathe but choking instead... the seawater flooding down into my lungs... blood pounding behind my eyes. My salty tears now mixing with the even saltier water... my panic started to fade into numbness, my heartbeat slowed down increasingly... I saw the glistening of the moonlight dancing on the water above as I sunk even deeper... it was mocking me, mocking how helpless I was. It didn't matter anymore... I saw the exit but no longer had the strength to survive.

My mind was going blank... my heart was begging to give up its battle... my body shut down and froze altogether... and death lurked around the corner. It was too much... I decided to give into the darkness and let the water take me.

The last thing I remember before slipping away was nothing but pain.

Uninterrupted

Uninterrupted is where we publish articles by contributors (students, teachers, parents, alumni, etc.) concerning any topic or matter of their choice. It could be displaying their opinion about a sensitive topic, sharing a memory or adventure they had, or perhaps showcasing their linguistic skills in one way or another such as poems, fictional stories etc. It really could be anything!

Is it only Maryam who was excited on October 20th? She is pretty sure everyone had the same feeling

- Maryam Al-Safi

On Saturday October 20, 2018, two things that are close to my heart happened: getting my senior jacket and meeting my favorite artist, Aziz Maraka.

Getting the Senior Jacket

I don't think it's only me who was excited about getting the senior jacket for years. Well, let me tell you something, I didn't really feel that this is my very final year at school until I first wore it. Let me take you back to my junior year, which I like to call 'the preparation year'. I spent my whole junior year and the summer vacation thinking about what logo and quote to put on my senior jacket. I won't tell you how many times I changed my mind, how many people I annoyed or how many posts I posted on my social accounts. I had some complications throughout the whole process, starting from the choice of color. I won't lie to you but at first, I was hesitant about what the majority chose. But eventually, when I saw the end product, I fell in love with it. The other complication was that the first logo I chose had a lot of details so I had to find another logo that I liked in the last minute.

Well after waiting months, the day finally came. Getting our jackets was exciting not only for us as seniors but for younger generations... as we all used to do when we were young, reading senior-jacket quotes without getting tired.

Meeting Aziz Maraka

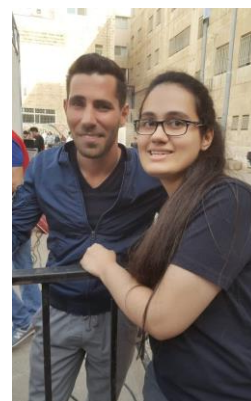

Let me tell you briefly about Aziz, in the unlikely case that you have never heard of him. He is a Jordanian singer who created his own music style which he named RAZ (Rock, Arabic, Jaz). Since April 2018, Aziz started a tour called "Say no to bullying" "لا للتتمر" in Jordan to spread awareness about bullying around schools. This tour contained a theme song called "واقف" which talks about how we should not care about negative comments and make them change our lives.

I had been trying to get Aziz to perform at our school since last year; sadly, it didn't work out. On Wednesday October 17, 2018, I got the happiest news that I honestly didn't believe would ever happen. I was told to keep it as a surprise for the rest of my generation, but no secret stays a secret; somebody has to spit it out, but it wasn't me, don't worry. It was Aziz himself! He was the one who published the news on his social media accounts (that he was coming to NOS) and everyone started talking about it.

The day arrived finally. For the first time in my life I hear my friend stating that it is his first time to see me that happy and excited. It was my first time ever meeting Aziz in person or at least listening to him singing live. Believe me, if Aziz's songs were part of my External Exams, I would get really high marks!

I am sure I was not the only one who was excited because even if I was in the first row, still at a certain point I couldn't hear him singing; the only thing I heard was other students around me singing louder. I got to take a photo with him, and before he left, he even shook my hand and remembered my name! I felt like I was in a dream.

This awesome day ended with all the Seniors getting pizza. It was a fantastic; I will never forget it in my life.

A big thank you to all our team members for their hard work.
